

Yearling Trail Ocala National Forest

Legend

- Paved Road
- Surfaced, Two Lane
- Surfaced, One Lane
- Yearling Trail
- Florida National Scenic Trail
- Water
- Other Ownership
- National Forest Land
- Wilderness Area

Points of Interest

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Travel Grahamville Road or Jody's Trace. 2 Old cattle dip dating back to the 1920s. 3 The open area on the north side of the trail, beyond the cattle dip (large depression), was Calvin Long's field. 4 Sinkhole in an oak/hickory hammock, where residents of the island got their drinking water. 5 Patrick Smith homesite. 6 Major Churchill Road leads to the Florida National Scenic Trail (FNST). | 7 Homesite of Reuben and Sara Long. 8 The Long Cemetary. 9 Calvin Long homesite-used for filming 'The Yearling'. 10 Homesite of Calvin Long's daughter Cora and her family. |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Contact Information
 Ocala National Forest
 Lake George Ranger District
 (352) 625 - 2520
 Monday - Friday,
 7:30 to 4:00 pm

Hiking Distance

Short Loop (Trailhead (TH) to Points 1 - 4, then south to 8 - 10 and to TH) - Approx. 3.9 Mile
 Long Loop (Trailhead (TH) to Points 1 - 10 and to TH) - Approx. 5.5 Mile
 From Point 4 to Point 8 - Approx. 0.2 Miles one way