

DESOTO National Forest

Fairley Bridge Landing

DeSoto Ranger District

Wiggins, MS

601-928-5291

Features

Camping

Picnicking

Boat Launch

Hiking

Wild and Scenic River

Description

Fairley Bridge Landing serves as the southern most ending point for both the Black Creek float trip and Black Creek National Recreation Hiking Trail. Facilities include 3 camping/ picnicking sites, chemical toilet (SST), and a concrete boat ramp. This recreation area is open year-round unless weather conditions require the area to be closed. No user fees required.

Location

Located on the Black Creek Wild and Scenic River near Wiggins, MS.

Directions

Traveling HWY 49, take State HWY 26 east to Wiggins, MS. From Wiggins, take State HWY 29 north to County Road 318 south and continue 6 miles to Forest Service Road 374A to the landing.

Accessibility

This recreation area is not accessible.