

Tombigbee National Forest

Owl Creek Mounds

Tombigbee Ranger District

Ackerman, MS

662-285-3264

Features

Indian Mounds

Historical Site

Description

Owl Creek Mounds Archeological site was established in 1964. It contains Indian Mounds dating to the early Mississippian period (A.D. 1000 to 1200). This area is on the National Register of Historic Places. Originally there were five mounds around a central plaza, two mounds are located on National Forest Land. Owl Creek Mounds Site is open year-round unless weather conditions require the area to be closed. No user fees required.

Location

The mounds are 20 miles south of Tupelo and located near Davis Lake Recreation Area.

Directions

From Tupelo, drive south 17 miles on the Natchez Trace Parkway to the Davis Lake exit at milepost 243. Turn west and drive 3 miles on the Davis Lake road. The site is on the right.

Accessibility

This recreation area is accessible.