OREGON DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY HOSTS FIRE TRAINING AT THE MALHEUR NATIONAL FOREST SUPERVISORS OFFICE

John Day, OR - The Oregon Department of Forestry will be hosting Wildland Fire refresher training on March 15 at the Malheur National Forest Office on Patterson Bridge Road in John Day. The courses include Oregon OSHA Fire Training, Fireline Risk Management, and Fire Shelter Deployment Refresher. The class begins at 8 a.m. and goes to noon. Participants need to call John Day Interagency Dispatch Center at 575-3112 to sign up.

The Refresher classes are mandatory each year for anyone who might go to the fireline for the US Forest Service or Oregon Department of Forestry. This includes drivers, fallers, dozer operators, and others doing similar work. Participants are required to complete the Oregon OSHA Fire training one time. It does not need repeating, as long as proof of prior completion is available.
