

Recreation at Mt. Baldy

Angeles National Forest San Gabriel River Ranger District

NATIONAL FOREST ADVENTURE PASS AND GOLDEN PASSPORT

A National Forest Adventure Pass is required for vehicles parked in a non-fee area while visitors are participating in recreation activities (camping in non-fee campgrounds, picnicking, hiking, fishing, etc.).

A National Forest Adventure Pass is a recreation pass for visitors using the Angeles, Cleveland, San Bernardino and Los Padres National Forests. The Pass must be displayed on visitor's vehicles and is available in two forms: a Daily Pass for $5, and an Annual Pass for $30. Passes may be purchased at many Forest Service locations, many local vendors and most major sporting good outlets. For more information on the Pass and where you may purchase yours, contact a local Forest Service office.

The Forests now honor the Golden Eagle, Golden Access and Golden Age Passports in lieu of the Adventure Pass. Vehicles displaying one of the Passports do not need to display an Adventure Pass.

FAMILY CAMPING

First come-first served camping is available at Manker Flats Campground located 3 miles north-east of Mt. Baldy Village on Mt. Baldy Road. Situated in a beautiful, open pine forest, this campground features 21 sites with tables, stoves, piped water and toilets. Most sites will accommodate small trailers or recreational vehicles but overall length should be less than 16 feet. There are no hookups, showers or sanitary disposal facilities. Overnight camping fees are $12 per site, per night, $5 for extra vehicles. The day use fee is $5 per site. If you have an Adventure Pass, you will receive a $2 discount on overnight camping and a $1 discount for any extra vehicles. Your Adventure Pass will cover your day use fee. During the winter months, entry is restricted to walk-in only and only Adventure Passes or Golden Passports are required.

PICNICKING

Picnicking is permitted along the streambeds and on other National Forest land in the Mt. Baldy area, but be sure to "pack-it-in and pack-it-out"! A National Forest Adventure Pass is required for your vehicle.

CAMPFIRES AND CAMPFIRE PERMITS

Campfire permits are not required at developed Forest Service campgrounds or picnic areas. Visitors may use Forest Service provided stoves, fire pits and campfire circles or their own barbecues, liquid or gas fuel portable stoves as long as proper clearance is maintained. Visitor built "rock ring" campfires are not allowed.

Open wood fires and barbecues are not permitted outside developed Forest Service campgrounds and picnic areas. Only portable stoves using gas, jellied petroleum or pressurized liquid fuel may be used outside developed sites, and a California Campfire permit is required for their use. Fire restrictions may be imposed during high fire danger. Free Campfire Permits and current fire restriction information may be obtained at any Forest Service office.

SIGHTSEEING

The Mt. Baldy Road offers many scenic vistas and photographic points.

San Antonio Falls Overlook may be reached by walking 1/2 mile on a rough paved road located 100 yards north of Manker Flats Campground. The cascading falls are fed by three springs in Mt. Baldy Bowl. Please do not attempt to climb near the falls or hike near its base. Slippery footing and the constantly eroding rock can cause tragedy.

On weekends, sightseeing chairlift rides to Mt. Baldy Notch and Desert View are available at Mt. Baldy Ski Area.

For panoramic views, the Glendora Ridge Road offers a breathtaking alternative route on your return trip. Though quite a winding road, it provides glimpses of the Sheep Mountain Wilderness, rugged San Gabriel Canyon and the vast metropolitan San Gabriel Valley.

HIKING TRAILS

Well-known throughout southern California, the Mt. Baldy area challenges hikers from the novice to the expert. Here are a few trails to consider during your visit:

Mt. Baldy Notch - (3.5 miles one way). From Manker Flats, the Baldy Notch Service Road leads to panoramic views at the notch and trails beyond.

Devil's Backbone - (3.2 miles one way from Notch). From Mt. Baldy Notch, a service road leads to the Devil's Backbone trailhead, then on to the 10,064 foot summit of Mt. Baldy.

Bear Canyon - (6.5 miles one way to Mt. Baldy Summit). This very steep trail is best hiked from the summit down to Mt. Baldy Village. For a shorter, pleasant trip, try hiking from Mt. Baldy Village to Bear Flats. (1.7 miles one way).

Icehouse Canyon - (3.7 miles one way). This trail originates at the Icehouse parking area and winds its way to Icehouse Saddle. From the saddle, numerous side trails lead to prominent peaks within the Cucamonga Wilderness. For a loop trip, try hiking the Chapman Trail back down to the Icehouse parking area. (5.5 miles).

Three T's - (5.3 miles one way). The Three T's Trail will lead you to spectacular views from the summits of Thunder, Timber and Telegraph Mountains. Entry to the Three T's is from Baldy Notch or Icehouse Canyon.

Elfin Forest - (.5 mile loop) The Elfin Forest trailhead is located 200 feet east of the Lower San Antonio Fire Station off Shinn Road near the mouth of San Antonio Canyon. This unique trail winds through eucalyptus and chaparral vegetation to a streamside overlook of San Antonio Creek.

For more specific hiking information, area maps, permits and weather conditions, please check with the Mt. Baldy Visitor Center or the San Gabriel River Ranger District Office.

OFF-HIGHWAY VEHICLES

HUNTING AND TARGET SHOOTING

Many parts of San Antonio Canyon are closed to the discharge of any firearm. Please check prior to scheduling your hunts. All target shooting is prohibited in San Antonio Canyon.

WILDERNESS

The Icehouse, Three T's and Chapman Trails provide access into the Cucamonga Wilderness from San Antonio Canyon. Wilderness permits are required for entry and are available free of charge from the Mt. Baldy Visitor Center and the San Gabriel River Ranger District Office.
