

U.S. Forest Service

2011 Career Fair

The Los Angeles River Ranger District on the Angeles National Forest is currently recruiting women and men interested in joining the exciting and rewarding career of Wildland Firefighting and Forest Resource Management.

We offer a variety of employment opportunities (both paid and unpaid) ranging from volunteer and student programs to seasonal, and full time employment for men and women.

Some of the available positions include: Firefighters, Foresters, Biologists, Engineers, Accountants, Computer Specialists, Law Enforcement, Public Affairs Specialists, Recreation Specialists, Geographic Information Specialists, Archaeologists, and more. Most Forest Service employees focus on managing, improving, and protecting our Nation Forests and Grasslands. Some employees focus on Forest and Range research.

We will discuss the many types of jobs, careers available, and the application processes. Information for the AVUE application process will also be provided.

Our Career Fair will take place on:

Saturday January 29, 2011. 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Location:

US Forest Service
Little Tujunga Ranger Station
