

Washington Office Information Center

A theatrical "lodge" setting creates the backdrop for the story of the national forest system. The exhibits include video to portray complex parts of the story. The lodge theme was carried through into the VIS space as well. The USDA Design Center worked with the Forest Service to fabricate and install the exhibits.

