

Horn Creek Trail

This scenic 5.7-mile biking and hiking trail is located in the southeastern portion of the Long Cane Ranger District and features four access points.

Many visitors begin their trip at Lick Fork Lake Recreation Area, which offers camping, picnicking, swimming, fishing and boating. Alternate access has been established on Forest Service (FS) Road 640 year round for those not wishing to enter the recreation area. Additional winter parking (December 16 - March 31) has been made available on Forest Service Road 634. Parking at either alternate access points does not require a fee.
