

Trails

Trails are routes constructed for the movement of people, stock, bicycles or Off Highway Vehicles (OHVs) and are usually narrower than roads. Trails are sometimes designated for motorized or non-motorized use.

The source of the trail routes includes US Forest Service cartographic feature files (information used in the creation of Primary Base Series maps) produced between 1996 and 1999.