

Dominant Vegetation on Forest Service Units

This map shows the dominant vegetation types found on parcels of land under Forest Service jurisdiction on the National Grasslands. These vegetation types will be discussed in depth in the Comprehensive Evaluation Report (CER).

Dominant vegetation boundaries on the National Grasslands were created using an object-based modeling approach involving Landsat TM imagery acquired in 2001 and 2002. Work was performed by the USFS, Region 3 office.