GROUP USE CAMPGROUNDS

Within the Blue Ridge area, there are three group use campgrounds with varying accommodations. Fishing, hiking, wildlife viewing and sightseeing are activities available to campers in this region. Summer temperatures in this vicinity range from the mid 30's to the low 90's. July and August are typically northern Arizona's monsoon season, which can involve short, intense thunderstorms. Our campgrounds are part of the Recreation Enhancement Act, which determines that 95% of the fees collected at each campground will be used for that site's maintenance and improvements. Our intent is to improve these facilities for future use. Reservations may be made through the Blue Ridge Office by talking with a reservation representative during business hours, 7:30 am through 4:00 pm, Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays. Starting on November 1, 2011, reservations will be taken for up to six months in advance of the date to be reserved. If you call November 1, you will be able to make a reservation up to May 1. Accordingly, if you want a reservation for May 25, the earliest you may call for a reservation is November 25. Messages on answering machines, faxes, or e-mails will not be accepted. The campgrounds are generally open from Memorial Day through Labor Day. These sites are ideal for family reunions, company picnics, youth group outings, and various social functions requiring single or multiple day/night use. There is no electricity, showers, or RV dumps at any of these campgrounds. Cost per site, per night: $30.00 Sunday through Thursday and $50.00 Friday and Saturday.
