

San Juan National Forest
2011 FALL COLOR REPORT

Date: 10/28/11

Estimated Percentage of Current Fall Foliage:

Durango – 95%

Pagosa/southeast – 95%

Dolores/Cortez –90%

Mancos – 90%

Dolores River

Areas with Greatest Amount of Color /
Recommended Viewing Areas:

Cottonwoods in the river valleys are still good.
Dolores south thru Cortez. Mancos river south.
Animas, Florida and Pine Rivers south to NM.
Pagosa areas, Blanco Basin road and south to NM.

Estimated Peak Viewing Period:

Another week of Cottonwoods.

Viewing Suggestions / Tips:

Still good color to be seen this week in spots at low elevations

Trees That Are Currently Turning Color:

cottonwoods

For More Information on Fall Colors Please Contact:

San Juan Public Lands Center, Durango (970) 247-4874