

Bitterroot National Forest
Conservation Education Resources
1801 N. First Street Hamilton, MT 59840
(406) 363-7122 or tgmckay@fs.fed.us

The Bitterroot National Forest has a lending library of educational materials available for use by community members. Below is a list of the materials that are available. To checkout any of these materials please contact Tod McKay. Please pick-up the materials at the address above.

Guide to Traveling Educational Trunks- Our traveling trunks are ready-to-use kits that include hands-on-activities and educational materials geared toward a particular theme. Each kit comes with a teacher's reference guide to assist with implementation of the included activities.

Wolves
Bears
Insects
Moose

Mini-Educational Trunks- We have several mini-educational trunks that contain "props" to teach about a variety of wildlife species or natural resource topics. Below is a list of the mini-trunk topics that are featured: Furs, birds, bats, frogs, bobcats/mountain lions, turtles, animal tracks, otters, soil, tree cones, skulls, snakes, foxes, beavers, pollinators, wilderness, aquatic insects, Sally Snag Puppet Show-value of dead trees.

Other items- Water sampling kits, compasses, waders, insect collection containers, insect nets, binoculars, magnifying glasses, GPS units, snowshoes.