Routt National Forest to Join BLM in Greater Sage-Grouse Open House Meeting

(WALDEN, Colo.) January 24, 2012 – In cooperation with the Bureau of Land Management’s Northwest Colorado District (BLM), the Routt National Forest will join the BLM in an open house meeting in Walden on January 31, 2012. The purpose of this meeting is to provide information about greater sage-grouse conservation planning efforts and to hear any early concerns from the public.

Forest officials will be on hand to answer questions related to greater sage-grouse on the Routt National Forest. This open house meeting hosted by the BLM is scheduled to run from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Wattenberg Center, 682 County Road 42

For more information about these meetings contact Melissa Martin at the Forest Supervisor’s Office in Laramie at (307)745-2371.
