Summary

Land management analysis and decision-making for the Hiawatha National Forest.

Description

Management Areas on the Hiawatha National Forest. This represents the Final Forest Plan management areas, as defined in the 2006 Hiawatha National Forest Revised Land and Resource Management Plan. This dataset represents Management Areas extended to cover non-FS lands within the Forest Proclamation Boundary. Management decisions and direction associated with these areas only pertain to FS-owned lands contained therein. Mgmt Area code descriptions (brief, from 2006 MA map table): 1.2 - Aspen management for fiber production, deer, grouse and dispersed recreation. 2.3 - Uneven-age management of hardwoods for high-quality sawlogs, and dispersed and developed recreation. 4.2 - Conifer management for sawlog production and non-game wildlife. 4.4 - Habitat production for upland wildlife species, conifer management for fiber production, and dispersed recreation. 4.5 - Older forest habitat, conifer management for sawlogs, wetland plant communities, deeryards, habitat for upland and lowland wildlife and dispersed recreation. 5.1.x - Wilderness Areas 6.1 - Semi-primitive non-motorized recreation activities. Provide undisturbed habitat for wildlife species. 6.2 - Semi-primitive motorized recreation. Even and uneven-aged timber management, habitat for game and non-game wildlife. 6.3 - Semi-primitive non-motorized recreation and non-game wildlife. No timber harvest. 6.4 - Even- and uneven-aged timber management, habitat for game and non-game wildlife, waterfowl and wetland habitats, semi-primitive motorized recreation and access to hunting and fishing areas. 7.1 - Developed Recreation Areas 8.1 - Candidate and designated Research Natural Areas (protected areas of significant biological, geological and cultural features). 8.2 - Forest research activities in concentrated areas. 8.3 - Even- and uneven-aged timber management, wetland plant communities, secluded wildlife habitat and dispersed recreation. 8.4.x - Wild and Scenic River Corridors 8.5 - Provides direction for the Grand Island National Recreation Area
