

South Kawishiwi River Campground Pavilion

SUPERIOR NATIONAL FOREST

KAWISHIWI RANGER DISTRICT

ELY, MINNESOTA

Description

This enclosed pavilion is a beautiful log building constructed by the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) in 1933. The CCC also constructed some of the log furniture still in use. The building and surrounding grounds are lovely settings for small weddings, family reunions, and other gatherings. It is available for summertime rentals by contacting the National Recreation Reservation Service—see page 2 for instructions.

South Kawishiwi Campground offers a variety of opportunities for day users and campers including: swimming (the beach does not have lifeguards), fishing, hiking, mountain biking, canoeing, boating, and bird watching. Some campsites will accommodate larger recreational vehicles. Sites sit well above the river and are surrounded by tall pine. Campground access roads are gravel.

Features:

- 35 people fit comfortably within the pavilion. More guests may be accommodated on the spacious lawn. Tents and chairs for outside use are not provided
- Outdoor cooking area with large grill and 2 picnic tables.
- Electricity available in the pavilion
- Accessible by ramp, thanks to a partnership with Telephone Pioneers
- Day use only: 6 am to 10 pm. Guests must vacate the building and clean-up must be complete by 10 pm.
- Renting party is responsible for all clean-up and garbage removal from the pavilion.
- Parking for 20 cars is available
- Rental is $100 per day. Reservations must be made at least 4 days in advance.
- Interpretive sign about the CCC, produced in partnership with Lake States Interpretive Association
