One-way Length: #934 5.8 miles
#934.1 ½ mile

Difficulty Rating: strenuous

Beginning Elevation: 8,520 feet east
10,500 feet west

Use: moderate

Peak Elevation: 10,630 feet at summit

Quadrangle Maps: Crystal Mountain and Pingree Park

Access: Lookout Mountain Trail can be accessed from the east via the four-wheel drive road Moody Hill (forest road 513) then to Crystal Mountain Road (forest road 344). It can be accessed from the west via the Signal Mountain Trail (#928-2), or from the north and south on Donner Pass Trail (#926). See Donner Pass and Signal Mountain Trail Guides for access information.

Trail Information: From the east, the Lookout Mountain Trail follows a jeep trail for a short distance west from Crystal Mountain Road then ascends steeply on a single-track, off-road vehicle trail for nearly 2½ miles to the junction with Lookout Mountain Summit Trail. The trail to the summit of Lookout Mountain gains another 400 feet in a half-mile ascent to a spectacular panoramic view. The main trail descends briefly westward to intersect the Donner Pass Trail (926) then continues about three miles west, passing the south end of Greer Road (forest road 154), and meets the Signal Mountain Trail.

Trail Regulations

- Motorized single-track vehicles are allowed east of Donner Pass only
