Yahoo Arch Trail #602 is located in McCreary County on Stearns Ranger District of the Daniel Boone National Forest. The trail begins at KY 700 and ends at Sheltowee Trace National Recreation Trail, Section 32. From the trailhead, follow the old road along the ridgetop. After 1/2-mile, the trail begins to descend. Stairs with railings mark your approach to Yahoo Arch. Turn left and follow along the base of the cliff. At one mile, you will have reached Yahoo Arch. The arch has a height of 17 feet and a base of 70 feet. Also notice the smaller arch on your left. You may either retrace your steps to KY 700 or continue on to the Yahoo Falls Day Use Area and other connecting trails.

Yahoo Falls Scenic Area is part of the Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area, which is managed by the National Park Service. Picnic tables and accessible flush toilets are located at the scenic area.
