

Meet and Greets well attended by Baker, Union and Wallowa Counties

Forest Supervisor Kevin Martin had an opportunity to meet with over 150 residents of Northeast Oregon during the Meet and Greets scheduled in mid-August. Kevin said he appreciated the broad range of topics that people brought up including, travel management, grazing, timber sales, fishing, hunting, restoration and conservation. He said that he looks forward to working with all interested parties and that he is excited about working with the local communities.
