Negro Creek Trail is located on Stearns District of the Daniel Boone National Forest. Follow the gravel road to the powerline. Turn right into the powerline, following the carved steps in the cliff. Turn left, following the cliffline. The trail descends from here until reaching the creek. There are several stream crossings with stepping stones.

After 1.75 miles, you will reach the Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area boundary. The trail continues on for another 1/4-mile before reaching the Sheltowee Trace National Recreation Trail (section 33) and the Big South Fork River. If you should choose to continue along the trail, you may exit at either Yamacraw Bridge to the south or at Alum Ford Boat Ramp to the north.

Nearby Facilities: Alum Ford Campground is part of the Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area, which is managed by the National Park Service.

Begin: KY 700
Ends: Sheltowee Trace #33
Difficulty: More difficult
Surface: Dirt
Length: 2.25 miles
County: McCreary
Quads: Barthell, Nevelsville
Latitude: 36.756608
Closest Town: Whitley City
Longitude: -84.512647

You are responsible for your own safety.

All outdoor activities have inherent risks and you may encounter a variety of unexpected and/or dangerous conditions. It is your responsibility to be informed and take precautions. Learn more at www.fs.usda.gov/r8.