

North Side

- Snowmobilers, please stay on the designated route (Lobo Road)
- No motorized traffic in skiing areas
- No motorized parking this side

South Side

- This side recommended for off-trail snowmobiling
- Observe caution within site of parking area and when encountering others
- No motorized traffic in the Rock Garden Area (designated on map)
- Motorized parking this side

Practice Trail Etiquette

- Skiers and snowshoers yield to snowmobilers
- Snowmobilers, slow down for skiers and snowshoers

Always be Aware of

- Sudden Snow Storms
- Avalanches
- Altitude Sickness
- Hypothermia
- Wildlife

Please Remember

- Leave No Trace —except tracks
- Take care not to damage trees, shrubs, and other vegetation
- Pack it in, Pack it out: pick up and Pack out your trash
- Do not harass wildlife
- Avoid walking or showshoeing on ski trails—footprints decrease grip and glide for skiers
- Safety first
- Know the proper areas to play in

Contact Us

- For more information go to: www.fs.fed.us/r2/riogrande
- Or contact:
 - Divide Ranger District, Rio Grande National Forest 719-657-3321
 - Pagosa Ranger District, San Juan National Forest 970-264-2268

Wolf Creek Pass Winter Use Area

Let others know your travel plans.

Motorized users — watch for and yield to pedestrians, non-motorized users, and others playing in the snow.

Avoid potentially dangerous areas — steep terrain, creek crossings, and overlooks.

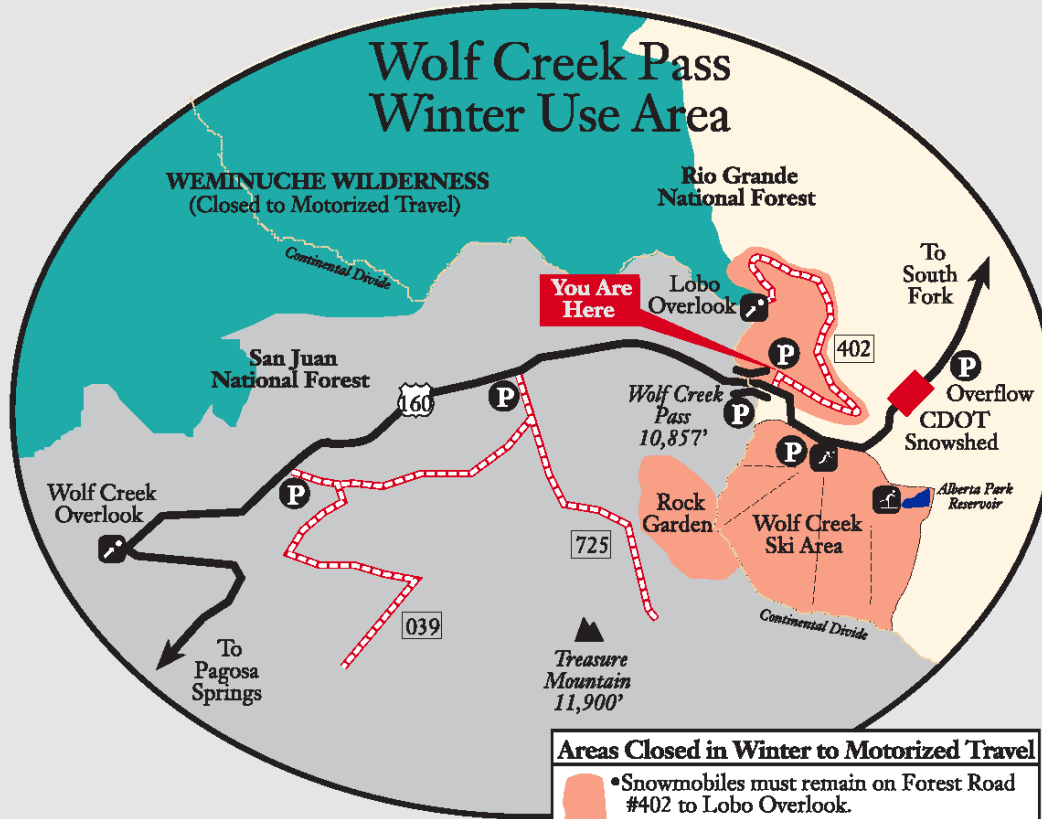

Be aware of avalanche hazards.

Dress for changing weather conditions.

Obey closure related signs.

Areas Closed in Winter to Motorized Travel

- Snowmobiles must remain on Forest Road #402 to Lobo Overlook.
- Rock Garden (west of Wolf Creek Ski Area)
- Wolf Creek Ski Area
- Weminuche Wilderness

Share the trail and be considerate of others. Motorized users, please yield to non-motorized users.

Pack out your garbage.

X-COUNTRY SKIERS

- ◆ Ski with Caution. Stumps, rocks, or other hazards may be present on all trails and areas. Some ski-touring trails are not maintained or groomed.
- ◆ Be alert to changing weather and avalanche hazards.
- ◆ In some areas, trails may be rated as:
 -
 -
 -

These ratings are relative for the vicinity. An "easiest" trail may be too difficult for some skiers.

◆ Ski trails may not be patrolled.

SNOWMOBILERS

- ◆ Ride with Caution. Stumps, rocks, or other hazards may be present on all trails and areas. Some trails are not maintained, packed, or groomed.
- ◆ For safety — Group travel is advised.
- ◆ Operate snowmobiles at safe speeds and always be prepared to stop within one-half of visible distance.
- ◆ Yield to pedestrians and skiers.
- ◆ Do not ride on designated ski trails.
- ◆ Do not enter or ride in Wilderness or areas closed to motorized travel.

SAFETY IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

- ◆ Let others know your travel plans.
- ◆ Dress for changing weather conditions.
- ◆ Avoid potentially dangerous areas — steep terrain, creek crossings, and overlooks.
- ◆ Be aware of avalanche hazards.
- ◆ Emergency: 911

Partners in providing high quality recreation opportunities for the public at Wolf Creek Pass. Special thanks to the Backcountry Skiers Alliance for their help in managing Wolf Creek Pass. Please do your part!

