

Timber Strike Team Biographies

Jeff Durkin
Forester/Project Leader
jjdurkin@fs.fed.us

Jeff Durkin graduated from the University of Montana with a Bachelor's in Forestry Resource Management in 2005. Jeff attended some continuing education courses, in GIS and mobile GIS, from Shasta College in 2008. As a college student he worked as a research assistant and for The State of Oregon during summer breaks. After college he went to work for Total Forestry Inc., in Redding, CA, where worked on timber harvest plans for private industry. Other experiences with private industry include; tree planting inspections, GIS work, mountain pine beetle research, and Forest Inventory Analysis (FIA) plot development. Jeff started working for The Strike Team in 2010 as a crew member. He is currently a project leader for The Strike Team and an advanced cruiser. Jeff will be attending Sale Area Layout and Harvesting Institute (SALHI) in the spring of 2013. He was a member of The California Licensed Forester's Association from 2005- 2009 and is currently a committee member for The Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Missoula Chapter.