Always practice trail courtesy as many trails are multiple use. Visitors should always carry their own water. Every year the mountains of New Mexico exact a toll of victims from the unwary, unprepared and unfit. The chief hazards to be aware of are storms (always dress in layers), dehydration, heat exhaustion, heat stroke and getting lost. A complete itinerary of your trip, along with the name and address of each member, description and license numbers of vehicles used, and expected time of return should always be left with a reliable person. Once underway, stick to your planned route and schedule.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY). To file a complaint of discrimination, write to USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TTY).
