

MILLCREEK CANYON FISHING POND DREDGING PROJECT

The project consisted of dredging approximately 6' to 8' of silt from the fishing pond in Millcreek Canyon.

Trackhoe access from the road over the boardwalk.

Trackhoe access looking from the boardwalk to the road.

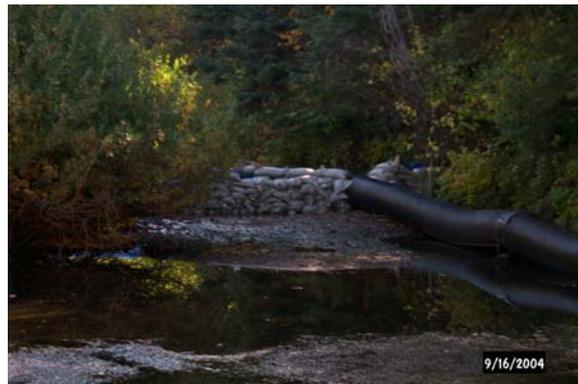

Fishing pond to be dredged.

Sandbags used to dam the creek and divert the water around the pond.

Looking from sandbags to dam.

Diversion along the pond edge.

Diversion pipe looking from fishing dock.

Diversion pipe going over dam.

Diversion pipe looking from dam.

Trackhoe used with 60' boom.

Trackhoe getting into position.

Trackhoe loading dumptruck.

Trackhoe starting to dredge.

Extra wide bucket.

Turning towards dumptruck.

Dredging completed.

Dredging.