The Photo Contest

Submit up to three of your favorite flower photos in the photo contest during the wildflower show.

Wildflower photographs can be in color or black & white, close-up or landscape, with or without pollinators.

Photographs must 8 x 10 in size and be mounted, with or without matte border.

Flowers should be reflected in their native habitat or in natural settings. Potted or green house flowers will not be accepted.

Submit your photos to any of the following:

- Klamath National Forest Supervisors Office at 1711 South Main Street in Yreka.
- Mount Shasta Ranger Station at 204 West Alma in Mt. Shasta.
- Fort Jones Ranger Station at 11263 N State Highway 3 in Fort Jones.

Submit photos by Friday, May 10th

Photos will be displayed at the Siskiyou County Fairgrounds during the Mother's Day Wildflower Show on Sunday May 12th. Winning photographs will be chosen by popular vote. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will receive a prize.

Submit digital copies of your photos to be used on the Forest Service Web Site with your credits.

Contact Danika Carlson at 530-468-1225 or email: dcarlson02@fs.fed.us - for more info.

The Event

Treat yourself, family, and friends to the 20th annual Mother's Day Siskiyou County Wildflower Show at the Siskiyou Golden Fairgrounds from 10AM until 4PM.

There is no admission fee and parking is free!

Hundreds of native plants will be on display along with books, posters, T-Shirts and wildflower art for sale.

The flower show is sponsored by the Klamath National Forest, the Shasta-Trinity National Forest Service, and the Shasta Chapter of the California Native Plant Society.
