Time to take a ride

Mountain bikes provide a great way to explore the large expanses of the Superior National Forest. You can cover a lot of ground, and yet still be close to nature. There are only a few areas specifically for mountain biking, but bicycles are welcome to use the Forest road system, provided you use common sense and obey traffic regulations.

Ski Trail

• Minimize erosion by not using trails when wet. This is a self-enforced rule; use good judgment.

• Single file only, stay on trail.

• Most are two way trails, beware of oncoming bikes.

• Watch for hikers on trail.
