This Regional Order is necessary to protect public health and safety and to provide the public with consistent public health and safety restrictions in the Rocky Mountain Region.

PROHIBITION:

1. Using an explosive; including exploding targets. 36 CFR § 261.52(b)

   An explosive is defined as any chemical compound, mixture, or device, the primary or common purpose of which is to function by explosion.

EXEMPTIONS:

Pursuant to 36 CFR §261.50(e), the following persons are exempt from this Order:

1. Persons with a Forest Service permit specifically authorizing the otherwise prohibited act or omission.
2. Any Federal, State, or local officer, or member of an organized rescue or fire fighting force in the performance of an official duty.
3. Any person engaged in the use of black powder or other muzzleloader propellant, and the use of its associated ignition source, for legal hunting or recreational shooting with a muzzleloader. This exemption does not include the firing at or use of exploding targets.

The Regional Order shall be in effect from August 2, 2013 until August 2, 2014, or until rescinded, whichever event occurs first.

Done at Golden, Colorado this 5th day of August, 2013.

DANIEL J. JIRÓN
Regional Forester
Rocky Mountain Region

Violations of 36 Code of Federal Regulations (36 C.F.R.) are punishable as a class B misdemeanor, by a fine of not more than $5,000 for an individual or $10,000 for a legal entity other than an individual, or imprisonment for not more than six (6) months, or both (16 U.S.C. §551 and 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559 and 3571).
