Ledge Point Trail, NO. 33091
Dixie National Forest, Powell Ranger District

General Description: Ledge Point overlooks the terrain of Red Canyon provides views south to Wilson Peak.

Trail Use: Foot, horse, and bicycle

Length: 0.5 miles/0.8 kilometers one way. This trail must be accessed by Cassidy Trail (No.3090). This is a 3 mile round trip.

Trailhead Information: Accessed by a paved road; Vault toilet is available at the Red Canyon Trailhead

Elevation in Feet:
- Min: 7,800
- Max: 7,860
- Change: 60 feet (18 meters)

Water Availability: No water is available at the trailhead or along the trail. Potable water is available at the Red Canyon Visitor Center.

Hazards /Obstacles: Weather can change quickly. Be prepared for inclement weather year round. Flash floods are possible in stream bottoms.

Topographic Maps: USGS 7.5 minute quadrangle(s): Casto Canyon
- Latitude: N 37º45’23.30
- Longitude: W 112º18’24.50

The Trailhead: The Ledge Point Trail is accessed from the Rich Trail No. 33092, which takes off from the Cassidy Trail, No. 33093. The Cassidy Trail begins at the Red Canyon Trailhead in Red Canyon. Drive east approximately 4.5 miles from US 89 on Utah Highway 12. This trailhead is the first trailhead on your left after passing the Red Canyon Visitor Center. The trail is well marked with trail blazes on trees and directional signs at trail junctions.

The Trail: This trail takes you through old growth Ponderosa pine to a high overlook view of Red Canyon area with up-close and personal views of rock outcrops. The trail is well marked with trail blazes on trees and trail directional signs at trail junctions.

For additional information, contact the Red Canyon Visitor Center at 435-676-2676 or the Powell Ranger District office at 435-676-9300.