Camp Eli Trail, No. 33055
Dixie National Forest, Powell Ranger District

General Description: This trail is used to access the Grandview Trail.

Trail Use: Foot, horse, and bicycle

Length: 3.1 miles one way

Trailhead Information: Accessed by a graded gravel road, no restroom available at the trailhead

Elevation in Feet: Min: 7,840 Max: 9,160 Change: 1,320

Water Availability: Water is available in the stream, but must be treated or filtered. It is located in the bottom.

Hazards /Obstacles: Weather can change quickly. Be prepared for inclement weather year-round. Flash floods are possible in stream bottoms.

Topographic Maps: USGS 7.5 minute quadrangle(s): George Mountain and Tropic Reservoir

The Trailhead: From the junction of Utah Highway 12, and East Fork Road, No. 087, go south on East Fork Road approximately 12 miles to Blubber Creek Road No. 106. Turn right and head west for approximately 8.5 miles. The trailhead is on the west side of the road.

The Trail: This first section of this trail is used to access the Grandview Trail and the majority of the trail has recently been adopted as part of the Grandview Trail. This trail is very steep in a few places. It was used by sheep herders and has an old wooden water tank along the trail.

For additional information the Powell Ranger District office at 435-676-9300.