FIREWOOD PERMITS FOR 2014

John Day, OR – Personal use firewood permits are still available for purchase at the Malheur National Forest Supervisor's office in John Day, Prairie City Ranger District Office in Prairie City and the Emigrant Creek Ranger District Office in Hines, announced Steve Beverlin, Acting Forest Supervisor. Firewood permits issued for 2013 will expire on December 31, 2013, whether or not all firewood has been removed.

Personal use firewood permits for 2014 will go on sale in all Malheur National Forest offices beginning February 1, 2014, with an expiration date of December 31, 2014.

The price for personal use firewood permits remains at $5.00 per cord, with a four cord minimum purchase. The personal use program allows for a maximum of 16 cords per household per year.

For additional information contact the Malheur National Forest office at 541-575-3000.
