

MOUNT ST. HELENS VOLCANO NATURALIST PROGRAM

for the greatest good

Winter - Spring 2014

Dave Anderson

The Volcano Naturalist Program provides in-depth training on the ecology, geology and history of Mount St. Helens in exchange for a commitment to volunteer for Mount St. Helens. This is your opportunity to become part of the dynamic landscape of Mount St. Helens!

COURSE TOPICS

- | | |
|---------------------|---------------------------------|
| Biological recovery | Bird and plant identification |
| Local ecology | Social impacts of 1980 eruption |
| 1980 eruption | Mount St. Helens geology |
| Interpretation | Much more... |
| Wildlife tracking | |

COURSE DETAILS

Classes are held at Gifford Pinchot N.F. Headquarters in Vancouver, WA

Wednesdays 6-9pm

February 19 - May 14

PLUS three weekend field trips

COURSE FEE ($200) INCLUDES

- 60 hours of training by Mount St. Helens experts
- Local natural history books
- Supplemental course materials
- Cerification as Volcano Naturalist after 60 volunteer hours
- Refreshments

Apply online before February 5th at

mshinstitute.org

or contact Amy Tanska:

atanska@mshinstitute.org -- (360) 449-7826

Continuing education hours available for WA state teachers