0E02A43—Log Building Restoration Documentation

October 2015

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible Agency or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at <https://www.ascr.usda.gov/filing-program-discrimination-complaint-usda-customer> and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.

The Forest Service, an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), has developed this information for the guidance of its employees, its contractors, and its cooperating Federal and State agencies. Acknowledgments

The author thanks the following people for their help in producing this guide.

Pete Brown, Montana State Historic Preservation Office; Janene Caywood, Cultural Resources Consultant; Rodger Free, Cultural Resources Specialist; C. Milo McLeod (retired), U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service; Gene Thompson (retired), Forest Service; and Jack Poppen, Julie Johnson Edelen (formerly of the Montana Heritage Commission), and Shiffy Wellborn—all at the Forest Service—provided information, located photos, and assisted the author.

Andrew Gulliford, Fort Lewis College Professor, shared his log cabin photos, log school photos, and knowledge of the buildings.

Rob Avila, Sydney Bacon, Joe Bergstrom, Frank Ciafala, Leigh-Ann Hunt, Carrie Leven, Greg Porter, Kenneth Sandri, Cindy Schacher, Steven Schacht, Nolan Smith, Rodney Snedeker, Doug Stephens, Mary Williams, and Richa Wilson, Forest Service, shared their photos and knowledge of buildings and artifacts.

Ian Grob and Jim Kautz (retired), Forest Service, took numerous studio and field photos to illustrate this publication.

Diana Jones, Mary Vadalma, Kathie Snodgrass, and Deb Mucci, Forest Service, created the architectural illustrations that show how log cabins are constructed.

Dick Ostergaard (retired), Forest Service Landscape Architect, created the illustration for the back cover.

Bill Harris (retired) and Dale Swee (retired), Forest Service, Northern Region Historic Preservation Team, left behind a wealth of notes, photos, and drawings.

Andrew D. McLean and Sunni Bradshaw, Forest Service, who turned the rough draft into an attractive and easy to read report.

Kirby Matthew, Steve Oravetz, and Molly Ryan, Forest Service, provided support and time to make this project happen. Kirby answered all my many questions and guided my work. Molly reviewed every draft version of this publication and made suggestions for improvements.

Peter Borgesen, Dana Flatter, James Scott Groenier, Michael Kaczor, Kenneth Sandri, Cindy Schacher, Charles Showers, and Richa Wilson—Forest Service—and Pete Brown, Montana State Historic Architecture Specialist, reviewed this publication and provided helpful suggestions.

Bernie Weisgerber (retired), Forest Service, conceived and began the work that resulted in this report.

The author especially thanks Jeff Bickenheuser for all his support and suggestions.
