

CONSERVE OUR WESTERN ROOTS

POST CARD

Promoting healthy and diverse native plant roots in the sagebrush sea benefits everyone

Support Wildlife • Improve Soil Health
Resist Invasive Weeds • Rebound from Wildfire Build Drought Resilience • Sustain People

---

---

---

---

The sagebrush sea sustains human and natural communities in the American West. These working rangelands support a wide variety of different plant types with unique life history strategies and root systems – scientists call them “functional/structural groups.” SGI works with ranchers to conserve plant diversity and promote healthy roots, which pays dividends for current and future generations.

To learn more, visit: sagegrouseinitiative.com/roots

Linda Poole/Montana Stockgrowers Association, Jeremy Maestas/NRCS, Linda Poole/Montana Stockgrowers Association, Rick McEwan, Ron Francis/NRCS. Artwork by Jeremy Maestas/NRCS and Maja Smith/MajaDesign, Inc.