

WHAT IS SECURE RURAL SCHOOLS TITLE II FUNDING?

This is a federally funded program that allows communities and National Forests to work together on projects of mutual interest and benefit. Funding is distributed to participating counties and managed by the Resource Advisory Committee made up of community volunteers and agency representatives.

HOW IS IT MANAGED?

- Funding is managed by the Resource Advisory Committee
- Organizations and agencies submit project proposals.
- The RAC reviews the proposals presented and vote, following the appropriate procedures.
- Meetings are documented and notes distributed.
