

Lake Isabella Developed Campgrounds

Sequoia National Forest

Kern River Ranger District

Welcome to Lake Isabella, one of the largest reservoirs in Southern California with over 11,000 surface acres. From fishing to boating, camping to picnicking, the lake offers one of the best fresh-water recreation experiences in close proximity to Los Angeles and Bakersfield year-round. Elevation ranges from 2,500 to 2,600 feet and fishing is open year round. Most developed campgrounds and group camping areas operate under a concessionaire program with ExplorUS.

DEVELOPED CAMPGROUNDS

Nestled around the Lake are 8 developed campgrounds offering more than 800 family units and 6 group areas. Reservations can be made for the developed campgrounds at www.recreation.gov at least 7 days prior to your arrival. A certain percentage of campsites also operate on a first-come, first-served basis. Group sites require reservations.
