SALIDA TRAIL #93

GENERAL INFORMATION: Salida Trail #93 is perfectly suited for the adventurous traveler. Steep pitches and rock scrambles provide technical challenge as the trail weaves its way in and out of rugged valleys to the high ridges that lie above. Although the majority of the landscape is dominated by pinyon-juniper woodland, there is welcome shade in many of the drainages where ponderosa pine and Gambel oak thrive. These areas attract a diversity of wildlife, including numerous songbirds, deer, rabbits, bobcats, and others. If the difficult terrain doesn't make your heart race, the views along this trail certainly will. In its final mile or so, TR 93 crests boulder-strewn peaks where there are panoramic vistas as far as the eye can see.

TR 93 ends at its junction with Charcoal Gulch Trail #9419. TR 9419 connects with several others that can be combined to make loops that vary in length and level of difficulty.

CAUTION: This trail is open to hikers, horseback riders, mountain bicyclists, motorcycles and ATV's. Please be considerate of others- slow down and know when to yield the trail.

ACCESS AND TRAILHEAD LOCATION: TR 93 is an internal trail, accessed by way of Salida Connection Trail #9263. From downtown Prescott travel east on Hwy 69 to Walker Road. Turn right and go 1.2 miles to the sign for Lynx Creek Ruin. Turn left onto Lynx Creek Road (FR 9401) just after the sign. Travel 0.8 miles past the Day Use area, bearing right down the hill and continuing to the end of the road. There is a large improved lot with ample parking for both single vehicles and horse trailers. TR 93 begins at the end of TR 9263, 2.7 miles from the trailhead.
