

Fires of 2003

Senator Max Baucus visits Robert Fire Incident Command Post

Written by Kimberly Delgado-Nelson, Lead Information Officer

August 2003

Montana Senator Max Baucus visited the Robert Fire Incident Command Post near Kalispell, Montana on Friday, August 29, 2003. Incident Commander Thomas Cable, and his Incident Command Team members presented a status update to the Senator and other visitors in attendance.

US Senator Baucus took advantage of his time in the Kalispell area to meet with the overhead team and other fire fighters, inquiring how he could be of assistance to the wildland fire fighting efforts underway in the Flathead Valley this summer. The Team expressed their appreciation to the Senator for taking the time to join them at camp.

More information on the Robert Fire and other fires near Kalispell, Montana can be found at: <http://www.fs.fed.us/nwacfire>.

Team member from, Incident Commander Thomas Cable's Team, gave a briefing to Max Baucus, US Senator and community members who were traveling with the Senator