3302 - Objective

To encourage the management of forest resources on nonindustrial private forest lands.

3303 - Policy

The Forest Service shall:

1. Actively participate in the development and administration of forestry incentives.
2. Provide technical forestry assistance to other Federal and State agencies and private concerns who provide forestry incentives to nonindustrial private forest landowners.
3. Evaluate forestry incentives and make or recommend changes to improve effectiveness.

3304 - Responsibility

3304.1 - Federal

1. The Director of Cooperative Forestry shall provide leadership, guidance, and review of all forestry incentives programs at the national level.
2. Regional Foresters and the Area Director are responsible for leadership, guidance, and review of forestry incentives programs at the Regional level and for providing technical support for the States through specialists on their staffs.

3304.2 - State

The State Forester or equivalent State official is responsible for implementation of forestry incentives programs at the State level. On-the-ground technical assistance to landowners is provided by the State Foresters. State Foresters also coordinate the development of forestry incentives programs with applicable State committees.
